The History of Radio and TV Premiums

Origins of Radio Premiums

Radio premiums originated in the early 20th century as a marketing strategy to attract and retain listeners. During the 1920s and 1930s, radio stations and sponsors began offering tangible rewards to their audiences. These premiums served multiple purposes:

The early premiums were often mailed to listeners who sent in coupons or proof of purchase, making them highly sought after.

The Rise of TV Premiums

With the advent of television in the late 1940s and early 1950s, premiums transitioned from radio to TV as a primary promotional tool. TV premiums became more elaborate, capitalizing on the visual nature of the medium. Television stations and sponsors used premiums to:
