Overview of Donald Duk

Frank Chin's Donald Duk was published in 1991 and is often lauded as a semi-autobiographical coming-of-age novel. It centers around Donald Duk, a young Chinese American boy living in San Francisco, who is wrestling with his cultural identity amid the pressures of American society. The novel blends humor, myth, and social commentary to portray Donald's personal journey toward understanding his roots and confronting stereotypes associated with Asian Americans.

Chin's narrative style combines sharp wit with serious reflection, making the book both entertaining and enlightening. The story is set against the backdrop of the 20th-century American landscape, particularly the cultural landscape of San Francisco, which has historically been a hub for Asian immigrants and their descendants.
