This article provides a comprehensive review and analysis of the message conveyed in "You shall not be barren," exploring its theological foundation, practical implications, and the broader context within Oyedepo?s ministry and teachings.

Introduction: The Promise of Divine Fruitfulness

Bishop Oyedepo?s teachings often emphasize the power of faith, the authority of the believer, and the supremacy of God's word in transforming lives. "You shall not be barren" encapsulates these themes by asserting that barrenness?whether personal, marital, or financial?is not the final verdict for a believer committed to divine principles. The phrase invokes a biblical promise rooted in scriptures such as Genesis 1:28, which commands humanity to be fruitful and multiply, and Psalm 128:3, which speaks of children as a heritage of the Lord.

The title alone signals a message of hope and assurance. It is designed to encourage believers who are experiencing difficulties in conception, career stagnation, or lack of spiritual productivity. Oyedepo?s approach combines biblical exegesis, prophetic declarations, and practical faith principles aimed at dismantling the spiritual causes of barrenness and replacing despair with divine expectation.

Theological Foundations of the Message

Biblical References and Scriptural Basis

At the core of Oyedepo's teaching are foundational scriptures that establish God's original intent for mankind. The most prominent among these include:

- Genesis 1:28: "And God blessed them, and God said unto them, Be fruitful, and multiply, and replenish the earth..." This verse underscores God's blessing and command for productivity and fruitfulness.
- Psalm 127:3: "Lo, children are an heritage of the Lord..." emphasizing that children are a divine gift, not a mere coincidence or accident.
- Deuteronomy 7:13-14: Assurance of divine favor leading to fruitfulness in various aspects of life.

Oyedepo interprets these scriptures as promises that are still relevant to believers today. He stresses that barrenness is often a result of spiritual causes—such as curses, ancestral limitations, or lack of faith—and that these can be broken through divine intervention.
