Preparing for Your Moon Loom Bracelet

Measuring and Planning Your Design

Before starting, carefully measure your wrist to determine the length of your bracelet. Standard bracelet lengths typically range from 6 to 8 inches, but customization is key for comfort and style. Once you have your measurements:

- Decide on the color scheme and theme (e.g., full moon, crescent moon, lunar phases)

- Determine where to incorporate beads or charms

Planning ensures your project proceeds smoothly and results in a cohesive design.

Setting Up Your Loom

Setting up your loom correctly is crucial:
