- To facilitate effective managerial decision-making.
- To prepare consolidated financial statements for the entire organization.

Types of Branches and Their Accounting Methods

Types of Branches

- Dependent Branches: These branches operate under the direct control of the head office and do not maintain independent accounting records. The head office records all transactions.
- Independent Branches: These branches function autonomously, maintaining their own books of accounts, and send periodic financial reports to the head office.

Accounting Methods for Branches

1. Branch Accounting Method

Used primarily for dependent branches, this method involves maintaining separate books of accounts for the branch and preparing consolidated financial statements.
